CRLA No. 467/2007
Hon'ble B.C. Kandpal, J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicant/complainant on the application to file appeal against the acquittal of the accused/respondents and perused the impugned order of the acquittal.

The learned Magistrate has found major contradiction in the statements of witnesses of complainant. From the statements of the witnesses, offences charged against the accused could not be established. I do not find any illegality in the finding arrived at by the learned Magistrate while acquitting the accused/respondents. Therefore, the leave to file appeal is not granted to the complainant.

Accordingly, the application to leave is rejected. Consequently, the appeal also stands dismissed.

(B.C.K., J.)

15.11.2007
SP